

From the President

Dear Fellow ACA Members,

It is hard to believe that we are heading into February 2010. I am sure many folks are glad 2009 is over considering the economy! I am reminded of my youth, when older folks would complain that "time flies by". I am learning there is truth to this statement. The new year is well in progress and we all hope for a better year economically as we move through the first quarter.

I want to thank The Atlanta Chapter of the CPCU Society for joining us for the annual joint lunch in January. We heard Jeffrey T. Bowman, President and CEO of Crawford & Company discuss claims adjusting in 2010 and the challenges and opportunities the new year will present.

February brings us our annual workers compensation seminar. We always have a huge turnout, so make your reservations for this event, which will be held at Villa Christina on February 4, 2010. The Workers' Compensation and Education Committees have a very interesting and educational agenda in store for you. Please see additional details in this publication.

We are gearing up for our annual convention in April. Be sure to make all your arrangements within the next few weeks since everything is filling up fast. Make your hotel and banquet reservations, and reserve your exhibit space. Remember to reserve your hospitality suites before they are sold out. Do not forget to contact the education committee to secure your sponsorship for the ever so popular mock trial, which normally attracts over 300 adjusters.

We all should have received our membership renewal information in the mail recently. Please get this completed and return ASAP so you will be able to get the committee assignments you desire.

Finally, special congratulations to the 2010-2011 slate of officers that were nominated and elected at our January meeting. I extend my best wishes to Kerri Crosby, President Elect, and her entire slate of officers. Thank you Past President Tom Santamorena and his committee for compiling this wonderful slate of nominees. I know this group of leaders will bring the Atlanta Claims Association to the next level. See you at the seminar.

Sincerely,
Russ Musgrove
President 2009/2010
